The OCO is committed to creating and maintaining respectful and courteous conversations at our public meetings. We expect all participants to refrain from engaging in hostile, intimidating, and offensive activities or behaviors that may amount to discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, or bullying. Community members may attend the meeting in person, join via Zoom, or watch on TVW. The OCO provides opportunities for public comment in person, remotely, or by submitting written comments/questions HERE. During the meeting, individual community members who identify themselves may speak for three (3) minutes or less, depending on the number of people wishing to speak. If time is available, the OCO may call for additional in-person and remote comments.
