The OCO is committed to creating and maintaining respectful and courteous conversations at our public meetings. We expect all participants to refrain from engaging in hostile, intimidating, and offensive activities or behaviors that may amount to discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, or bullying.

The OCO provides opportunities to submit written questions and comments prior to the Q&A Session, and for remote public comment during the Public Comments & Feedback Session. During the Public Comments & Feedback Session, individual community members may speak for up to two (2) minutes.
